

Ross McMaster's Biography

Ross was appointed as Company Secretary whilst heading the finance team at Suel, the University of Sheffield's Commercialisation & Business Support Company which he joined in 2003.

Prior to joining Suel, Ross worked at both local and national chartered accountancy practices, where he gained extensive knowledge in all areas of accountancy, taxation and audit.

A Fellow of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants with a BA [Hons] in Accounting and Business, Ross specialises in the provision of management accounting services, strategic and business planning, financial forecasting and statutory accounts preparation for SME [small and medium-sized enterprise] companies.

Having been involved in a variety of fundraising transactions for private limited companies Ross also provides corporate governance and contract guidance, holding the position of company secretary to a number of companies spun out from the University of Sheffield in addition to Full Scale Dynamics Ltd.